Second Meeting (8/29/2017) Starts at 5:30 PM within County Administration Building at 315 W. Main Street Suite 144 in Tavares. Meeting conducted pursuant to 101.68(2) of Florida Statutes and provides final review of Vote-By-Mail ballots in question. Board adjudicates for disposition any returned Vote-By-Mail ballot envelopes that provide an eligibility question and all returned “Cure” affidavits. These affidavits are issued by this office to those voters that may have done one of the following when returning his/her vote-by-mail ballot:

- A) Omitted their signature from the return envelope prior to return of the ballot
- B) Recorded a signature onto the return ballot envelope that does not match the signature image on file with the Supervisor of Elections office

Canvassing Board may adjourn briefly prior to the receipt of election returns that will occur just after 7:00 PM from precincts 7 (City Hall) and 76 (Lakeview Terrace). This meeting will conclude upon receipt of election returns from both precincts and the Canvassing Board will be provided with a report providing “Unofficial Results” prior to conclusion of the meeting.

Third Meeting (8/31/2017) Starts at 5:30 PM within County Administration Building at 315 W. Main Street Suite 144 in Tavares. Board reviews Provisional Ballot eligibility for those voters submitting Provisional ballots on 8/29/2017. Provisional ballots deemed eligible will be added to the election results tabulation. Board declares that set of results, which includes Provisional ballot tabulation as the “Official Results.” Board identifies the precinct and contest that provides the scope of the “Voting System Audit” required per 101.591 of Florida Statutes. Performance of such audit is detailed within Florida Administrative Code Rule 1S-5.026. Date of audit is 9/5/2017.

Fourth (Final) Meeting (9/5/2017) Starts at 8:30 AM at the Election Support Center located at 703 S. Rossiter Street in Mount Dora. Performs “Voting System Audit” required per 101.591 of Florida Statutes. The performance of such audit is detailed within Florida Administrative Code Rule 1S-5.026.
